——Multos in ſumma pericula miſit
Venturi timor ipſe mali —— Luc.

THAT the March of the Ruſſians to the Aſſiſtance of the Allies, precipitated the French into the Preliminaries of Peace, is beyond Doubt. Fame ſoar'd aloft, with her Trumpet, in their Front, and, reſounding their great Reputation in Arms, diffus'd a Terror thro' the Councils of France, and prevail'd; when the Voice of Miſery and Famine, in the very Bowels of that almoſt exhauſted Nation, fail'd: And yet ſo happily did the French cover their Fears and their Neceſſities, that they found Means to intimidate the Maritime Powers into an Acceptation of the Terms, which their bad Situation compelled them to offer ſo cavalierly. Tho' they expected nothing leſs than to have been beaten off in a Fortnight from before Maeſtricht, or at leaſt out of it; yet they were ſo tenacious of the Honour of their Arms, that, preſs'd as they were by the Approach of Danger, they inſiſted, with a Face of Earneſtneſs, on having that Town delivered up to them; tho' they little expected to ſucceed in a Demand, which they rather made to ſave Appearances than to perſiſt in, and would have been glad to forgo, had our Negociators but the Prudence to have ſtood to a Refuſal a few Days only, nay perhaps a few Hours. Thus they cloſed up the laſt Scene of War with ſuch a Coup d'Eclat, as muſt for ever give a great Reputation to their Councils, and ſav'd the Credit of their Arms; which they wiſely ſaw was run up to the very Meridian of Glory, ballancing on the topmoſt Height, and that a rapid Declenſion muſt have enſued, down to the very Nadir of Diſgrace, if not inſtantly prevented. This they did with a Maſter-Stroke of political Condeſcenſion, as tho' their Grand Monarch ſhould exultingly ſay: "Thus far have I gone; I am "ſatiated with Glory, and will go no further. I have only "ſhewn you what the Arms of France can do: I reſign "my Conqueſts. Take back your Towns, your Coun-"tries, and your Subjects:—Lo! I give you Peace."

As this mighty Condeſcenſion was founded on the Approach of the Ruſſians, what a Pity 'tis they did not come ſooner! The laſt great Miniſter, whoſe Experience and Knowledge in the public Affairs of Europe, reflected Honour on the Tranſactions of our Cabinet, and gave us the Lead in the Councils of Princes, firſt formed the ſucceſsful Scheme, when he found that P——a was inſeparably attached to the common Enemy: He had gone a great Way in a Treaty for that Purpoſe, with the Court of Peterſburgh, when the Coalition interrupted his Meaſures with their little, idle Farce of Parſimony, which lingered on the War into a moſt expenſive Length, when one vigorous, well-ſupported Campaign had either beaten or intimidated the Enemy into an honourable Peace; ſince 'tis evident, by the Diſpoſition they have now ſhewn, they did not care to hazard their Glory againſt the Ruſſians. Had this great Man's Scheme been ſooner put into Execution, the Allies would not have laboured under ſo many diſgraceful Campaigns. What a Waſte of Blood and Treaſure ſhould we have ſaved? To what a Height of Reputation might not our Arms have been raiſed, and what a glorious Peace might we not have expected, when formed, conducted, and perfected by ſuch an able Hand, backed by the Terror and Influence of ſuch Arms? To whoſe Account ſhall we place the Lives of Thouſands, nay of Ten Thouſands, loſt in every Campaign, ſince that great Miniſter was torn from the Boſom of his Royal Maſter, and the general Approbation of his Countrymen? To whom but to the wretched Remains of Leviathan, and their new Aſſociates the overlooked Refuſe of the Oppoſition; a kind of fourth Rate Set of Politicians, who would fain be diſtinguiſhed by Noiſe, Clamour, and Abuſe?

France would not have dared to play her Chicanry and Grimaces upon a Miniſter of ſuch Experience, or attempt to amuſe us with impertinent Diſtinctions between the Letter and the Spirit of the Treaty: While they have bound us down by the Preliminaries, they make no Scruple of their Side to commit ſuch Acts of Violence as are altogether repugnant to them, and amount even to Hoſtilities; for I think that levying exorbitant Contributions on the Conquered Provinces, in ſo exacting and ſevere a Manner as they do, can be called by no other Name, or conſidered in any other Light. They ſtrip the Inhabitants, not only of their Wealth, but even of their very Neceſſaries. While they pretend with their Tongues to treat of Peace, they liſt up their Hands adverſariouſly againſt their Allies, and puniſh the reluctant Contributor with the Riot of half a Dozen or more Locuſts, 'till he is oppreſs'd to give what he can't refuſe without manifeſt Danger of his Life. They make no Scruple to intimate as if they were reſolved, that, inſtead of well furniſhed Towns as they found them, the Allies ſhall repoſſeſs no more than the Shells of them, on the Evacuation to be made by their ravenous Troops; and all this under the very Noſe of our own Army, and almoſt within Sight of 37000 Auxiliaries engaged in our Pay for three Years.

After we had entered into ſo expenſive a Contract, and for ſo long a Time, and brought thoſe brave Auxiliaries to the Verge of their utmoſt Deſtination, it was a very poor puſillanimous Piece of Conduct in us to patch up Preliminaries of Peace without trying the Courage of theſe Northern Soldiers. The Enemy judged better of them by their Fear, than the Allies did by their Miſtruſt. Their glorious Actions againſt the Perſians firſt, and the Turks after, were recent in the Minds of the Enemy, as well as the Fate of the Swedes in the laſt Campaign in Finland, who durſt not join Battle againſt Troops ſo inured to Conqueſt. The Fears of the French were well grounded and prudent, and therefore they averted their Fate by a ſeeming generous Conceſſion to the Allies, 'till they entangled them in Preliminaries which they are now endeavouring to explain away by Subtilties and Evaſions, while they laugh at our formidable Auxiliaries doomed to Inaction and ſlothful Repoſe.

Thoſe Auxiliaries, which, if employed according to the Treaty and the vaſt Subſidies granted, would have turned the Scale of the War, and given us Victory. They would have enabled us, not only to ferret the Enemy out of the Auſtrian Strong-Holds, of which they had poſſeſſed themſelves in the Courſe of the War, (a mercantile War of Bargain and Sale with faithleſs Governors, Dutch Governors!) but to purſue them into their own Country, and confine them within their ancient Boundaries. Oh! what a glorious Opportunity have we loſt? Such as, in all Probability, may never occur again to check the Pride and reſtleſs Diſpoſition of the French Court. Thirty-ſeven Thouſand ſtout Ruſſians in our Pay! prompt and ready to act under our Direction! encamped on the Confines of the Scene of the War! thirſting after Action, and ſtorming with Revenge againſt the faithleſs Power that would have embroiled their Country in a Civil War, and depoſed their Sovereign, the favourite Daughter of their ever renowned Monarch Peter the Great! Oh! Heavens, how are we fallen in the Sight of all the Nations in letting ſuch an Opportunity ſlip! Had Sunderland lived at ſuch a happy Conjuncture, had Ge not been worried out of his Station by the Vermiculæ of Corruption, what a happy Iſſue might we not reaſonably have expected from ſo many concurring Incidents in our Favour; more eſpecially from our Auxiliaries, 37000 brave Auxiliaries! upon the Spot, devoted to our Service and the Deſtruction of the Enemy: And yet to ſee theſe return without ſtriking one Blow, is a mortifying Sight! after ſo much Expence laviſhed away, and while the Enemy triumphs over our Weakneſs, and enjoys the happy Event of their own Addreſs and Cunning.

The French proceed ſo cautiouſly at Aix they will truſt us in nothing, while they expect to be truſted in all Things. They refuſe to evacuate the Towns, according to the Terms of their own Preliminaries, 'till they hear that Cape Breton is actually in Poſſeſſion of their own Troops, and Parma and Placentia in the Hands of Don Philip. They likewiſe refuſe to withdraw any Part of their Forces from the Conquered Provinces, 'till the Ruſſians are actually withdrawn. We have had the Complaiſance to humour them in both theſe Particulars. The Ruſſians, the brave, diſappointed Ruſſians! have had their Orders to prepare for an ignominious Retreat; for ſo it muſt be to generous active Minds, who marched flufh'd with Expectation of Action and Battle. Affronted by our Miſtruſt, they withdraw diſſatisfy'd; and I fear it is but a bad Compliment to their Sovereign to return them unemploy'd, as no Doubt ſhe muſt have ſome Grudgings of Reſentment left againſt the Power that attempted to dethrone her; and conſequently muſt have expected, from the Bravery of her Troops, ſome little kind of Satisfaction in the Overthrow of her private Foe in Favour of her Allies.

But is it not ſtrange, that France, after having lured us into her Preliminaries, and ſetting on a Face of negociating a Peace upon them, is every where making Preparations for War? Elſe, why are their Troops kept together? Why are the Officers ordered upon Duty, and Abſence ſo rigorouſly forbidden? Why are our Sailors, and more eſpecially our Dock-Yard Artificers, picked up by them at a high Rate, as faſt as we diſcharge them? There muſt be ſome Meaning in all this: It is not to be ſuppos'd that France, exhauſted with this laſt War, does theſe Things for Parade and Shew. They have ſome lucrative Enterprize in View, ſome Piece of Treachery to play, that will reimburſe them, which the Sagacity of the Coalition cannot penetrate; or perhaps may be apprized of, and ſuffer on the Walpolian Plan of Quietiſm: That is, to permit France to invade her Neighbours with Impunity, and enlarge her Empire on every Side, at the Expence of our Allies, regardleſs of the Conſequence that may in Time affect ourſelves, by the Aggrandiſement of the faithleſs Houſe of Bourbon, which has branched out already over very near the beſt half of Europe in leſs than half a Century, and gives Diſquiet and Dread to all their Neighbours round them.

But after all, what need we be under any Apprehenſions for the Succeſs of this fame Treaty of Peace, which is at Work upon in the Loom of Aix, by the Hands and the Feet of a moſt experienced Negociator, born a Politician and educated in the School of Oppoſition and Eloquence! who calls the Shuttle above from Side to Side, and treads the Engine of Motion up and down below with amazing Dexterity! taught, inſtructed, guided and overlooked by the conſummate Wiſdom of the Paragon of Policy and Perfection! the Depth of Conception, and the Plane of Solidity and Rectitude, the moſt puiſſant Prince, the chief Scribe of Great Britain! whom I dare not name for Fear of offending his Modeſty.

LONDON.

We were aſſured on Wedneſday Morning, that an Account was come of Admiral Griffin's having taken Pondicherry in the Eaſt-Indies, and that the Garriſon was obliged to capitulate for Want of Proviſions.

We alſo hear, that four of our Men of War have taken a Spaniſh Ship, valued at 100,000 l.

The laſt Accounts from the American Plantations adviſe, that the Engliſh on the French Side of Hiſpaniola have taken ſeveral French Veſſels; one of them is valued at 30000 l.

There is Advice from the Weſt Indies, that the Centaur, Capt. Tyrrel, off Martinico, run down a large French Privateer, and only three Hands were ſaved.

They write from Hamburgh, that two Ships were arrived from Greenland, having on board each eleven Whales and a Half; the Maſters of theſe Ships report, that they never knew the Fiſhery to be ſo good as this Year, almoſt all the Ships having been extraordinary ſucceſsful.

We hear that Benjamin Gough, late a Meſſenger of the Admiralty, has ſent ſome Letters over from France, in order to have his Affairs made up.

Wedneſday the Proclamation for a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities, with the Kingdom of Spain, and the Republic of Genoa, was read at the South Gate of the Royal Exchange.

On Friday laſt a Proclamation was iſſued out by the Lords Juſtices, which is as follows,

Whereas Preliminaries for reſtoring a General Peace were ſigned at Aix la Chapelle, on the 19th Day of April laſt, O. S. by the Miniſters of his Majeſty, the moſt Chriſtian King, and the States General of the United Provinces:

And whereas, for the putting an End to the Calamities of War, as ſoon and as far as might be poſſible, it was agreed between his Majeſty, the Chriſtian King, and the States General, that Hoſtilites ſhould ceaſe at Land and at Sea within the Time, and in the Manner in the ſaid Preliminary Articles, for that Purpoſe agreed upon: And whereas, ſince the Signing the ſaid Preliminaries, his Catholic Majeſty, and the moſt Serene Republic of Genoa, did on the 17th Day of June laſt, O. S. accede to the ſaid Preliminaries, we have thought fit, by the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, and do hereby, in his Majeſty's Name, notify the ſame to all his loving Subjects; and do ſtrictly charge and command all his Officers, and all others his Subjects whatſoever, to forbear all Acts of Hoſtility againſt his Catholic Majeſty, and the Republic of Genoa, or either of them, their or either of their Vaſſals or Subjects, from and after the reſpective Times following; that is to ſay, from and after the End of twelve Days, to be computed from the ſaid 17th Day of June laſt O. S. in the Channel, and in the North Seas; and from and after the End of Six Weeks from the ſaid 17th Day of June laſt O. S. beyond the Channel, the Britiſh Seas, and the North Seas, as far as Cape St. Vincent, and beyond the ſaid Cape to the Equinoctial Line, whether in the Ocean or Mediterranean; from and after the End of Six Months, from the ſaid 17th Day of June laſt, O. S. beyond the Equinoctial Line and in all other Places of the World, without any Exception, or other more Particular Diſtinction of Time or Place; and do declare, that all Ships, Merchandizes or Effects belonging to his Catholic Majeſty, and the Republic of Genoa, or either of them, or their or either of their Subjects or Vaſſals, that have or ſhall be taken contrary to the true Meaning of this Proclamation, ſhall be reſtored.

The Engineer who makes the Fireworks for the Opera-Houſe in the Haymarket has compleated a moſt magnificent Firework, which will coſt 600 l. and is to be played off in Grosvenor Square, when Peace is proclamed.

Laſt Wedneſday died at Redborn in Dorſetſhire, the Rev. Mr. Adamton, aged 84; who had been Meniſter there upwards of 40 Years and is much regretted by the Pariſhoners for his Piety, Condeſcenſion, and Humanity.

We hear that part of the Swarm of Locuſts fell in the Gardens at Batterſea Wandſworth, Putney, &c. but we do not hear of any Miſchief they have done.

We are informed from Rochester that the Locuſts have already done conſiderable Damage to the Hops thereabout, and that if we have no Rain ſhortly, they will deſtroy the major Part of them.

Laſt Week as ſome Perſons were reaping of Corn in a Field belonging to Mr. Waymar, at Tooting in Surry, they found the Body of a Man naked, with his Throat cut: He had lain there ſeveral Weeks, his Body being putrified, with Maggots, &c. Mr. Waymar gave Five Shillings, a Piece to the Reapers to roll the Corpſe in a Blanket; and a Coffin being procured for him, he was on Saturday Night laſt interred in Stretham Church-Yard: his Cloaths have ſince been found in a Ditch; but who he was is not know.

One Morning laſt Week a young Woman was found expiring in a Ditch near Acton; ſhe juſt lived long enough to tell, that ſhe received her Death from a Villain who came out of the Country with her in a Waggon, who firſt decoyed her into the Fields, and then ſtabbed her in the Breaſt, and made off: The People about her attempted to aſk her, where ſhe came from, and other Queſtions, but in vain; for ſhe grew ſpeechleſs, and died in a few Minutes. She was dreſſed in a Green Joſeph, and was carried to the King's Head.

A few Days ago a Woman that lived at Cow-Croſs having ſome Words with her Huſband, went to a Friend's Houſe in Redcroſs-Street near Criplegate, and took the Opportunity in their Abſence to Hang herſelf with a new Penny Cord which ſhe had provided.

Tueſday Evening as a young Woman, cleanly dreſſed, was croſſing the River from the Old Barge-Houſe to Eſſex Stairs, ſhe deſired the Waterman, when he was half Way over, to give her Change, that ſhe might not be delayed at the Stairs, which while he was doing, ſhe took the Opportunity of flinging herſelf over into the Thames, but he fortunately caught hold of her Wriſt, and held her till other Boats came to his Aſſiſtance, by which they ſaved her, and brought her to the Sun Tavern in Eſſex-Street, where ſhe lived a Servant. Upon aſking what induced her to commit ſo raſh an Action, all they could get out of her was, becauſe ſhe was deaf. It ſeems ſhe was a little thick of Hearing, but had not totally loſt it.

The Accounts in the Daily Papers of the Sailor's robbing a young Woman of her Box in the Street is a Miſtake; the Fact was as follows: One of the Fellows had pretended Love to the young Woman for ſome Time, till they came to an Agreement to be married; when he perſuaded her to pack up her Money and Cloaths, in a Box, and commit it to his Care, for him to convey it to a Place of Safety, and then come back for her, She was ſo fooliſh as to comply, and he carried the Box to the Caſtle and Falcon at Alderſgate, and directed it to himſelf at Cheſter, where he intended to be, in order to take it over with him to Ireland. Not coming back to the Girl, as ſoon as ſhe expected, ſhe imparted the Affair to ſome of her Acquaintance, who fill'd her with Suſpicion that ſhe was cheated, and perſuaded her to make diligent Search after her intended Huſband. It was with ſome Difficulty ſhe found out the Fellow, and got Intelligence of her Box; upon which ſhe immediately went before a Magiſtrate, and ſwearing to the Fact, procured a Warrent for her Box, and coming to execute it with proper Officers to the Caſtle and Falcon, was met by the Sailor, and three more of his Companions, Sailors likewiſe, all armed with Cutlaſſes, who cut and wounded ſeveral People in a deſperate Manners; but being purſued from Street to Street, ſtill fighting as they went, two of them were at laſt taken, and the others made their Eſcape.

On Monday Night a Gentleman who lives in New-Broad-ſtreet Buildings, was attacked by two Fellows dreſſed like Seamen who demanded his Money; but he immediately ran for it and they purſued him, ſtricking at him with large Sticks, and knocked off his Hat and Wig, but he got to his own door, and being immediately let in, ſaved his Money which was a pretty large Sum.

Friday 7-Night Mr. Tollitſon, a Farmer, was travelling from Burton to Bridgwater, in the County of Somerſet, he was attacked by three Fellows near the Cat-gut-Windmill, who robbed him of about eight Pounds in Money, his Watch, and a large Bible he had bought two Days before, after which they made off towards Murlich.

On Saturday Evening two Gentlemen on Horſeback, on their Return from Enfield, were near Stamford Hill, ſtopt by two Fellows on Foot, with Cutlaſſes, Hangers, &c. and robbed by them of their Watches and Money. The ſame Fellows about an Hour before ſtopt two Chaiſes in the Road to Hackney, and took from them a very conſiderably Booty.

Laſt Saturday Night Mr. Phillips, an eminent Sugar-Baker in Lemon-ſtreet, Goodman's Fields, was attacked in his Return home by ſeveral Sailors, in Preſcot ſtreet, who robbed him of three Pounds in Money two Bunches of Keys, and his Hat and Wig; and made off undiſcover'd.

On Monday laſt, Robert Coverley, Waterman, was convicted by the Rulers of the Watermens Company, before William Hammond, Eſq; for Rowing on the River of Thames on the Lord's Day not licenſed ſo to do; and he not having ſufficient to make a Diſtreſs to pay the Penalty, was committed to the Houſe of Correction for the Space of fourteen Days.

Wedneſday Juſtice Quarrel committed Fourteen Fellows to the Houſe of Correction and Whitechapel-Goal, the greateſt part of whom were dreaſs'd as Sailors, impeached by a Lad, an Accompliice, who ſays there is fifty in the Gang, who has lately infeſted Stratford, Bow, and ſeveral other Places.

By Letters received on Saturday laſt we have an Account, that their have been the greateſt Floods on the Edge of Cheſhire and Derbyſhire that ever was known by any Perſon living; the River Goit overflowed, and carried all the Bridges, Mills, and ſeveral Houſes away, beſide waſhing out of their Graves, at Hawfield Church Yards, fourteen Bodies. Two Maiden Siſters were caried away from their Door and drowned. beſide immence Damage done to Peoples Hay, Corn, Land, &c. being preceeded by violent Thunder and Lightning.

Extract of a Letter from Goſport, Aug. 9.

" On Saturday the Hon. Sir Edward Hawke hoiſted his Flag on board the Invincible, and made the Signal for a Court Martial, which was held on the Boatſwain of the Portland, for ſtriking and ill uſing one of the Lieutenants; when the Court ſentenced him to be broke, and turned before the Maſt, on board the Prince Henry Man of War, which is to go to the Weſt-Indies.

" The Hon. Sir Edward Hawke has ſtruck his Flag on board the Invincible, and hoiſted it again on board the Fogueux. Wind S. S. W. blows hard."

By a Private Letter from Holland we are informed, that Affairs begin to grow quiet again; that every thing has been ſettled to the Satisfaction of his Serene Highneſs the Stadtholder; that the People alſo are ſo much delighted and ſatisfied that they have even propoſed to ſalute him with the Title of MAJESTY, which his Highneſs abſolutely refuſes.

There are ſome Letters from Franckfort of the 11th Inſt. N. S, which mention, that the firſt Column ſtill continued at Furth, and it was beleaved all thoſe Troops would continue in the reſpective Countries where they now are till October next.

Letters from Paris intimate, that in the Convention concluded between the Count de St. Severin and the Miniſters of the Maritime Powers, relating to the Ruſſian Troops, it is not only ſtipulated, that they ſhall, with all convenient Speed, return into their own Country, but that they ſhall not whilſt they are in the Pay of England and Holland, go into the Service of any other Power nor be employed under any Pretence whatſoever againſt the French King or his Allies; and that the French are preparing Quarters in Picardy, and the Country adjacent, for 37,000 Men which tre King withdraws from Flanders, in Conſideration of the Ruſſian Troops being ordered to march home.

Letters from Peterſburgh of the 28th of July, N. S. mention, that 2000 new Stone Houſes were already erected at Moſcow, in the room thoſe that were lately conſumed by Fire. The Empreſs of all the Ruſſia's has cauſed to be declared by the Chancellor Count Beſtucheff to the Engliſh and Dutch Miniſters, that their Principal may employ her Troops in their Pay whereſoever they think fit, without applying to her. Theſe Letters add, that Count de la Salle will be pardoned by her Imperial Majeſty, and releaſed at Dantzick.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Briſtol, Auguſt 6. Laſt Tueſday was committed to Newgate Elizabeth Willoughby, for ſtealing a Silver Pint, and two Silver Dobbins, from Mr. Lane, at the White Lion in Broad Street, which ſhe ſold to a Jew in the Fair for their intrinſick Worth. The above Lady and her Male Companion with her took up their Reſidence (equipp'd in a grand Manner) at the above Inn, under Pretence of their coming from Abroad to take up a large Eſtate left her in Hereford hire; and on the Credit thereof prevailed on an eminent Mercer and Linnen Draper of this City to truſt her with a conſiderable Quantity of Goods. They were both taken by Means of the Jew that had bought the Plate, who being queſtioned by the Silver Smith, to whom he offered it to Sale, how he came by it, he immediately diſcovered the Perſon that ſold it to him, and ſhe and her Companion were both ſecured. But beſide the above, they alſo beſpoke a Tete of a Wigmaker, which the Lady had on when taken; as likewiſe a handſome Wig for her Cull, which was taken off his Head at the Council Houſe by the Owner, and his Body committed to Bridewell and ſhe ſent, in her pompous Dreſs, to Newgate.

To Perſons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS ſo frequent as of late they have been, nor have the uſual Remedies been found adequate to thoſe pertinacious Diſtempers: This occaſioned a Phyſician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palſy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and always with ſurprizing Succeſs even ſo as infallibly to cure by it the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Diſorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that ſo thoſe labouring under theſe miſerable Ailments might know where to meet with a ſafe and moſt certain Cure, which it accompliſhes in ſo ſhort a Time, and with ſuch Eaſe and Pleaſure (a few Drops of it being a Doſe, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almoſt incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonſtrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients ſoon finds all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and ſhaking, or Reſolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulſive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vaniſh and return no more, and this, though theſe Diſeaſes have been of many Years ſtanding, and whether occaſioned by long Illneſs, faſt Living, hard drinking, or any other Cauſe; for it performs all that can be wiſhed for in Nervous Caſes, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, reſtifies the Digeſtion, occaſions laudable Chyle, regenerates the Blood and Juices, cauſes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Veſſels, revives and increaſes the Spirits, warms comforts, ſtrengthens, and repleniſhes the Brain and whole Nervous Syſtem, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs reſtored to their priſtin Steadineſs and Strength, and the Palſy and all Paralytick Diſorders and Nervous Decays ſuddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themſelves, and all about them.

This ſovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be ſold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKN.

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Subſtance or very Eſſence of Life, and inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholly diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miſerable, and ſhort liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe ſcalding Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self-pollution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtorative Balſamick Electuary, that no one, how bad ſoever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Petitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be lately rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. This Grand Medicine is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, London, at 6s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt paid.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE ſhorteſt, ſafe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleaſant to take, and as eaſy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; ſo that the unfortunate Patient gets ſuddenly and ſurprizingly well, without Confine to his Palate, the leaſt Diſorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now ſo well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTISYPHILITICON that Radcliffe and Garth uſed to ſay would totally extirpate the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth, were it but univerſally known, and properly taken. Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel Attendant Symptoms, it preſently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a ſafe, gentle, and pleaſant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Perſons, in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary; nor can the deepeſt Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Evil, or Leproſy, ſtand before it, but are pleaſantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the higheſt and moſt inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Diſeaſe; which, with all its moſt raging Symptoms, it ſoon eradicates, reſtoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Thoſe who once take it, will never have Recourſe to any Thing elſe.

One Pot in moſt Caſes is ſufficient for a Cure, and can only be had at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 6s. a Pot, ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, in which all Perſons may fully underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

No Letters anſwered unleſs Poſt-paid.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Infirmities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the aboveland Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine, were preſcribed by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old bad Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Bolufſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infirmities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Rebels, exceſſive Cotion, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

As they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3s 6d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies, for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is ſo ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the neeſt Perſons is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3s 6d.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only, ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt ſeparate Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Fumigation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to ſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value, and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Churchyard, in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever afflicted with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Foliatto ſuſ, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumption which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they muſt aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to right and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, alſo for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten times, as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will be complete Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is intirely extirpated or not. Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt paid.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure for that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived in the higheſt or moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation, or the leaſt Purging, which, by an unaccountable Miſtake, is Generally adviſed, altho' always found rather to encreaſe than confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH in, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced, for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Pethiæ, foul Eruptions or Breakings-out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy inſults, and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indiſpoſitions) to Buttock, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides intirely curing the Scurvy, in all its ſhapes and Appearances, they eſſentially and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diſeaſes.

But the great Reputation theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be ſure to have the Right, which, by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, ſo as never to return again; be they ever ſo ſevere, or of many Years ſtanding, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately ſtriking at the very Root or true Cauſe, as well as remedying the Effects, of thoſe perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they miſtruck, by Turns, almoſt all the Diſeaſes poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Riſe from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferments in the Stomach, and Indigeſtion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Diſorders in the firſt Paſſages, ill Fumes, ſour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneaſineſs in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Conſent of Parts affect the Head, and produce ſometimes Giddineſs, Dimneſs of Sight, confuſed Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troubleſome Sleep, Frights, groundleſs Fears, and the deepeſt Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehenſions; at other times, Fits, flaſhing Heats, Reachings, Faintneſs, Lowneſs and Sinking of Spirits, and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulſive Diſorders, ſharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakneſs in the Back, and other, almoſt innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miſerably afflict vaſt Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their ſharpeſt Paroxyſms, theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the moſt valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the higheſt Degree of Perfection poſſible) inſtantly quell, and at the ſame time annihilate their real Cauſe, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digeſtion, occaſioning laudable Chyle, and, of courſe, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; ſo that both Cauſe and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almoſt on the Spot, as the many Thouſands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be ſenſible they are abſolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and laſting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

The only True Specifick TINCTURE

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Diſorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given ſuch intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above theſe Twenty Years paſt, by it, vaſtly exceeding all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contrived for theſe Purpoſes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and inſtant Eaſe in the moſt tormenting Pain, when nothing elſe will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but abſolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, ſo as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once uſing, it makes the fouleſt Teeth moſt beautifully white, aſſuredly faſtens thoſe that are looſe, and infallibly preſerves the Teeth from growing rotten, and thoſe a little decayed, from becoming worſe: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, cauſing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and alſo occaſions a ſweet Breath.

It is neither diſagreeable to the Smell or Taſte, but effectually preſerves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulneſs, Corruption and Putrefaction, keeps them ſound, good, and in moſt beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to anſwer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Reſpect, as Perſons innumerable have experienced.

But theſe inimitable Qualities, and ſolely inherent Virtues by which it has juſtly gained ſuch an univerſal and unparalell'd great Character, have occaſion'd, as uſual in ſuch Caſes, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, ſome under the ſame Name, and in the very Words of this Advertiſement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to thoſe who take Quantities for Exportation.

DR. R. NELSON's long-experienced COMPOUND, or never-failing Anti-Venereal Electuary, the like of which is not to be met with,

FOR the true Cure of freſh Venereal Injuries, (and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones) how virulent or obſtinate ſoever they may be; for it immediately puts a Stop to their Progreſs, and entirely and, as it were, inſtantly, ferrets out, and carries off all the filthy poiſonous Infection, wears away the various Symptoms, and by Degrees cleanſes off the Running, and heals and ſtrengthens the Parts, ſenſibly and firmly, without the too common Conſequences of leaving either Foulneſs, Gleeting, or Weakneſs behind. This it does in a Way ſo regular and gentle, both by Stool and Urine, and with a Dole, each Time, ſo ſmall and pleaſant (the Quantity but of a Nutmeg) that the niceſt Perſons are as well ſurprized as delighted with it, and the more, as it agrees with every one's Conſtitution, hinders no Buſineſs, nor gives the leaſt Suſpicion to the neareſt Relation.

In a very ſmall Space of Time (living temperately) it rids away a mild CLAP, and thoſe more ſevere, according to their ſeveral Degrees of Malignity.

There never was, nor can be in the whole Art of Phyſick contrived, any Medicine or Method capable of performing the Cure more certainly, more ſafely, or more ſpeedily, for it is ſo compleatly adapted to every Circumſtance of the Infection, and ſo fully anſwers the ſeveral Intentions of curing, that it is impoſſible it ſhould once fail.

But no more need to be ſaid of it, for it will recommend it ſelf, inſomuch that no Perſon will ever after ſeek for Cure himſelf, or adviſe his Friend to any other Remedy.
